

The Western Brown High School Marching Band is a growing organization committed to excellence. Marching Band relies heavily on each individual working as an integral component in drill formations and music executions. Hard work, dedication, commitment and teamwork are direct correlation to our end product!

We hope you will be a part of the 2010 Marching Band season.

Your active support will reward our community and our students in so many ways. The fun, friendships and life lessons made possible through your donation will be valued for years to come. This year's show..

Are you afraid of the dark?

will be an exciting, crowd-pleasing event. We know you will enjoy it! Again, please consider being an integral part of our organization.

We look forward to another great season.

Please join
